MS. CHERRY LOU DEMESA
 Division School Superintendent
 Department of Education Cavite

Dear Ms. Demesa,

We are pleased to inform you that the Provincial Government of Cavite will be celebrating Tourism Month this coming September with a series of tourism activities. One of the activities will be "Save the Environment, Poster Making Contest" on September 28, 2016 at Cavite Provincial Capitol Stage, Trece Martires City. The Contestants of this poster making are Elementary Students Grade 5-6 from different school in the province of Cavite. Each School shall be represented by 1 or 2 students. Materials for the Poster Making contest will be provided for by the Tourism Office. This Poster Making Contest will start at 9.00 am. The actual Poster making will be done strictly in a span of 1 hour and 30 minutes only.

The objective of this contest is to help individuals and social group to acquire basic understanding of the environment its associated problems and their responsible role towards the betterment of the environment. Students to demonstrate creative thinking, creative writing and organizational skills in designing a poster about things people can do to protect the environment.

In this light may we request your good office to assist us in the dissemination of the competition to schools within your jurisdiction.
