THIS WEEK'S NEWS

Ilagan raises quality of education through community awareness

"It takes an entire village to raise a child," and the Schools Division Office (SDO) of Ilagan in the province of Isabela mobilized its 91 barangays to promote awareness and address gaps in the implementation of the Senior High School (SHS) Program. Through the active participation of numerous stakeholders, activities like Kumustahan sa Barangay, Harvest Festival, quarterly exhibit of learners' outputs, press conference, and Education Summit paved the way for the positive reception toward the K to 12 Program. > Read more

DepEd, partner agencies set to welcome learners for SY 2017-2018

The DepEd and its partners from both the government and private sector work together in ensuring that all learners will have a safe and conducive learning environment come June 5, 2017; the scheduled opening of classes for School Year 2017-2018. > Read more

Marawi learners' safety remains DepEd's topmost priority

Classes in Marawi and eight districts in Lanao del Sur will be postponed to ensure the safety of learners. For the displaced learners transferring from the affected areas, they may enroll to another school even with just their Learner Reference Number (LRN). This transferring and enrollment setup for them is in effect nationwide. > Read more

Adamant in providing learners with free access to quality basic education, DepEd reminds students, parents, teachers, and other education stakeholders that collection of fees shall not be a basis for learners' non-admission, non-promotion, and non-issuance of clearance in public elementary and secondary schools nationwide. > Read more

DepEd opens Balik Eskwela centers nationwide

Students, parents, teachers, and other education stakeholders now have wider access to information and solutions related to the opening of classes as the Department of Education (DepEd) formally reactivated its Oplan Balik Eskwela Information and Action Centers (OBEIAC) nationwide on May 29, 2017. > Read more

DepEd supports EO on smoking ban, iterates ban on DSAs and tobacco sponsorships

Education Secretary Leonor Magtolis Briones lauded the signing of Executive Order (EO) No. 26, which provides for the establishment of smoke-free environments in public and enclosed places. "The Executive Order will sustain the gains of DepEd in its implementation of its own comprehensive tobacco control policy, which has been in place even before the EO was signed," Briones said. > Read more
