Philippine Criminal Justice Researchers Society 2nd International Research Conference

Theme: Criminal Justice Responses to Human Trafficking, in Asia and Beyond
Wednesday - Friday, June 6-8, 2018

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE:

The Cavite State University in partnership with Philippine Criminal Justice Researchers Society Inc. (PCJRS), and Centre for Human Rights, Chinese University of Hong Kong will hold the 2nd International Research Conference with the theme "Criminal Justice Responses to Human Trafficking, in Asia and Beyond" on June 6-8, 2018 at Cavite State University, Philippines.

The activity is spearheaded by the Cavite State University's College of Criminal Justice and GAD Resource Center.

Human trafficking is on the rise due to increasing mobility, development of new technologies and the high profit it brings to the trade. Human trafficking is a serious crime and a clear violation of human rights that it becomes a topic of major criminal justice interest throughout the modern world.

Looking at the factors attributed to traffickers, to those creating the demands and the law and policy responses on trafficking in human beings from a gender perspective is central to any discussion of the causes and consequences of this human rights violation. With this in mind, the conference aims to look specifically at the gender dimension of trafficking and the practice of the criminal justice system in the light of existing political and social issues around the world.

This interdisciplinary conference is open for papers across disciplines, including, but not limited to criminology, criminal justice, security, sociology, anthropology, economics, gender studies, cultural studies, migration studies, politics, international relations, social

CALL FOR PAPERS AND POSTERS:

The PAPER should include an abstract, rationale, objectives, methodology, discussion/interpretation, conclusions, policy implications, and recommendations; and should adhere to the following format/guidelines:

1. Paper should have a Title Page (Title, Author/s and their Designation and Agency, Address and Contact Numbers)
2. Title should all be in capital letters. In case the title exceeds one (1) line, it should be in an inverted pyramid form.
3. The underlined full name (s) of the author (s) starting from the first/given name
4. An asterisk must be placed after the name of the author who will present the paper.
5. In cases where the paper has many authors coming from one or different institutions, superscript numbers should be used to indicate the author's corresponding position, institution if applicable, and address.
6. The use of abbreviation is not accepted. Acronyms should be spelled out the first time they are used. If several acronyms are used, they could be listed with their meanings at the end of the abstract.
7. All abstracts must be submitted by May 15, 2018 for screening and approval for presentation during the conference. The abstract should not exceed 200 words. Several keywords should be provided at the end of the abstract.
8. Biographical Statement: All proposals for presentations must include a brief biographical statement (12 lines or less) with picture. Please do not send lengthy resumes.
9. Multiple Submissions: Multiple submissions by the same author or co-author are allowed, depending on the topics and space/time availability. The Program Committee reserves the right to limit multiple submissions.
10. Please note that only original papers or materials that have not been published or presented elsewhere may be submitted.
11. Recent papers are more desirable. However, all papers written in the past five (5) years can be presented at the conference.
12. Official communication will be sent to author(s) of the papers which have been approved for presentation and competition.
13. Once approved, e-copy of the full-length paper should be submitted in PDF format to the Secretariat on or before May 30, 2018. Full paper must follow the IMRAD format of a journal article and should be double-spaced with a font of 12 in Times New Roman and not exceed 20 pages.

Conference Presentation:

- 20 presenters are expected to present in one day;
- Presentation will be by batch comprising 5 presenters;

- The five presenters will be seated at the front;
- Each presenter is given 15 minutes for the presentation (1 hr & 15 mins);
- After five presenters have already presented their papers, a summary of the presentations will be presented (5 mins);
- Open Forum will follow the recapitulation (40 mins);
- Each presenter shall receive one-two common questions and questions from the audience; and
- A question shall be addressed within 2 mins only.

Major Criteria for Evaluation of Paper:

1. Relevance/significance
 - Implications/relevance to the five pillars of justice (planning, implementation, evaluation)
 - Potential contribution to the five pillars of justice (e.g. social, economic, ecological)
2. Organization (content)
 - Comprehensiveness
 - Overall quality (validity/reliability and dependability of results/content)
3. Oral Presentation
 - Presentation (over-all impact on the audience, understandability, concise reporting within given time-frame)
 - Format presentation (clear description of the research; follows given format)
 - Researchers' salesmanship (knowledge on the project, communication skills)

The POSTER should clearly depict rationale/significance, objectives, methodology, discussion/ interpretation, conclusions, policy implications, and recommendations; and should adhere to the following format/guidelines:

1. An abstract of the poster should be submitted to the Secretariat on or before May 15, 2018 for screening and approval for its presentation during the conference.
 - Abstract for a poster should be 250-300 words, double-spaced with a font of 12 in Times New Roman
 - Title should all be in capital letters. In case the title exceeds one (1) line, it should be in an inverted pyramid form.
 - The underlined full name (s) of the author (s) starting from the first/given name
 - An asterisk must be placed after the name of the author who will present the paper.
 - In cases where the paper has many authors coming from one or different institutions, superscript numbers should be used to indicate the author's corresponding position, institution if applicable, and address.
 - The use of abbreviation is not accepted. Acronyms should be spelled out the first time they are used. If several acronyms are used, they could be listed with their meanings at the end of the abstract.
 - Several keywords should be provided at the end of the abstract.

- Official communication will be sent to author(s) of the posters which have been approved for presentation and competition.
2. The poster should both be attractive and self-explanatory - presenting organized and concise key ideas, conclusions and recommendations.
 3. Size of the poster is 40" x 30" (in portrait format) with labels not exceeding 600 words.
 4. The design should flow sequentially from one part to the next (left to right or top to bottom). Number or arrows may be used to help the eye move from item to item in the correct order. Avoid cluttering with text or artwork.
 5. Poster text should be presented in no more than three colors. Dark typed on light background is easiest to read.
 6. Photographs/illustrations should be 5" X 7". Captions and labels should be readable from two meters away and not cluttered with unnecessary details. Graphs are preferable to tables. Use only one vertical scale per graph.
 7. The poster must be set-up/displayed in the designated area a day before the conference proper and must remain on display until the Awarding Ceremonies.

Major Criteria for Evaluation of Poster:

1. Message delivery (understandability, use of simple/layman's language, public appeal, overall impact on the reader)
2. Color, design, and style (creativity, attractiveness)
3. Proponent's salesmanship (product knowledge, communication skill)
4. Encourages multi-sectoral collaboration
5. Serves as catalyst for other investigations

NO-SHOWS

The program committee has noted a growing number of "no-shows" among panel participants. It is disrespectful toward fellow panelists and audiences, and unfair to those applicants who were not selected for inclusion on the program. Participants who fail to notify the PCJRS secretariat in advance that they will not be able to attend the conference and participate in their panel session will not be allowed to submit a proposal for the following year's conference.
