We are

Were to mount these amazing events as we take science and technology (and technology) into a whole new level, raising the bar notches higher thought <sup>world</sup> class innovates and developments. Our partner company anchors on the concept of innovating and manipulating science educations that creates great (grates) impacts to the overall learning experience of the participants.

This Event aims to provide a new way of learning modern innovations, not just thought one way lectures, but also thought hands on science education where they will learn by doing. Further this will also encourage social interaction among them as they work together with their colleagues.

These spectacular science events will feature the following technological innovation that will surely contribute learning science in a whole new world.

We would like also to invite all key science teachers both primary and secondary to join the training and seminars that were going to conduct about this spectacular science event that were going to bring in
