Dear Sir:

Greetings of Peace!

As we continuously work in building a learning environment that will help enhance the academic and personal achievements of our students and to address the needs of our teachers, guidance practitioners and those who work with the youth to keep themselves abreast to the current issues and concerns of the population they are journeying with, the Philippine Guidance and Counseling Association, Inc. (PGCA) – Quezon Chapter is once again holding a seminar/workshop entitled "Understanding and Embracing Inclusive School Culture."

PGCA – Quezon Chapter is a community based organization supported by the Philippine Guidance and Counseling Association, Inc. (PGCA) National Chapter, an accredited integrated professional organization of the Professional Regulation Commission (PRC). The organization uphold the roles and functions of guidance counselors in public and private educational institutions in the Philippines and those who journey with the human person. Likewise the organization recognizes the need for them to be empowered and to continually upgrade their skills to keep pace with the ever changing demands in student formation.

This one-day seminar/workshop will be held on November 29, 2019 from 7:30 am to 5:00 pm at AEC Little Theatre, Manuel S. Enverga University Foundation, Lucena City. The topics to be discussed include Inclusive Education, Self-Care Strategies for Counselors, Teachers, and Allied Professionals, and Adolescent Depression. The seminar will have a Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points for registered guidance counselors and licensed professional teachers.

In view thereof, may we respectfully request an advisory to inform the DepEd CALABARZON Counselors, Teachers, and Allied Professionals about the said seminar?

Thank you very much. May God continuously bless you in all your endeavors.

Sincerely,

MA. LINA C. PEREGRIN, RGC, Rpm
President, PGCA-Quezon Chapter
