Division of Cavite Province

Dear Madame,

Greetings of abundance from Pugad ni Art Studio and Alitaptap Artist Community!

The Pugad ni Art Studio Inc. (PNAS Inc.) is an artist community and a multi-functional studio dedicated to encourage and promote its members' artistic expression through abstract, conceptual, and representational art, established in 2016 here in the UNESCO designated Creative City of Baguio-Benguet. On the other hand, Alitaptap Artist Community (AAC) is a unique artistic organization composed primarily of internationally renowned artists from all over the Philippines owning the 1st creative-hub subdivision located in Amadeo Cavite.

Both organizations, composed of a dynamic and multi-generation of artists with diverse cultural background and creative techniques, represent a strong roster of talents with a shared vision of cultural preservation and promotion through different arts forms hence, the conceptualization and staging of the second leg of 1st Pilipinas Art Camp: Building a Better Nation with a Soul Through Creativity, Celebration of Filipino Heritage which is an event primarily for the purpose of cultural and artistic exchange through a bootcamp type of activities happening on May 17 -21, 2023 (CORDILLERA SHOWCASE) at Pugad ni Art Studio Inc..

In this light, it is with great pleasure that we write and invite you to the event. It would be an honor if you could attend and bless us with your presence.

Should you wish to further discuss about our group or should you have any other concerns, please feel free to communicate with Ms. Ruff Cas-oy - 0995-354-4266 or email us at pilipinasartcamp@gmail.com.

We look forward to this creative milestone with you!

Thank you and mabuhay tayong lahat!

Sincerely,

Art Lozano
